

The Inquest Law Reports

written by DigiDoIt | 17 January 2022

How helpful would it be to have all the decided cases each year that are relevant to inquest law in the same place, so you could put your hand on them easily, with an index that also provided a summary line allowing you to see the key issues in the case on a quick scan, and a neat headnote to tell you the gist, so you could make sure you haven't missed anything important?

For just £150 a year you can have all this: The Inquest Law Reports is the only publication which aims to collect all cases relevant to coronial law readily in one resource, saving you hours of searching the internet and hoping you haven't missed a case right on point.

"The single comprehensive law resource for practitioners in coroner's courts ...worth the cost for the head notes alone." Dr J Adeley, Senior Coroner for Preston & Darwen with Lancashire

The reports provide the full text of judgments from the High Court, the Court of Appeal, the Supreme Court and the European Court of Human Rights; each case has a headnote prepared by specialists in inquest law.

The reports are provided in a loose-leaf binder so that new cases can be added with ease. Updates will be provided at regular intervals throughout the year as new cases are decided, with more regular electronic updates available through Justis.

These reports are an essential tool not only for Coroners, many of whom already subscribe, but also for barristers, solicitors and those public bodies (such as NHS Trusts, Police Forces and Prisons) whose work regularly involves appearances at inquests.

"A comprehensive and invaluable resource which every coroner should have at their elbow" Mr Geraint Williams, Senior Coroner for Worcester, President of the Coroners Society 2018-19
